

Voter ID: What to take to the voting place: 1 of these 7 forms of photo ID

Texas Drivers License

Texas Personal ID Card

Texas Election ID Certificate

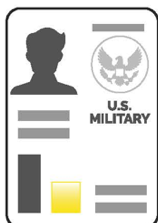

Texas Handgun License

US Citizenship Certificate with photo

US Passport (book or card)

US Military ID Card

What if my photo ID is expired?

If you are 18-69 years old: you may use an ID that may have expired for up to 4 years.

If you are 70 or older: you may use an expired photo ID.

Does the address on my photo ID have to match my voter registration address? No

NOTE: The name on your photo ID should match your voter registration card OR be "substantially similar."

You can vote with a regular ballot if you cannot reasonably obtain a photo ID.

Registered voters without photo ID who can't reasonably obtain one can fill out a Reasonable Impediment Declaration, and show a copy or original of 1 of the following documents with the voter's name & address:

- Your Texas Voter Registration Card
- a government document showing the voter's name & an address, such as an out of state driver's license, or expired Texas driver's license;
- current utility bill;
- bank statement;
- government check;
- paycheck; or
- (a) certified domestic birth certificate or (b) court admissible birth document (which may include a foreign birth document).

Vote a regular ballot.

NOTE: Voters with a past felony conviction may register to vote if they have fully discharged their sentence, including incarceration, parole & probation, or have been pardoned. TEC Sec. 11.002 (a)(4)

Forgot to bring your ID?

✓ (1) Get your ID & Return to the polling place with your photo ID. OR

(2) You could still vote, using a PROVISIONAL ballot. However, if you want the Provisional Ballot to be counted, you must bring acceptable photo ID to the office of the County Voter Registrar – you will have 6 calendar days to do this.

Voter Harassment

- Election officials cannot question a voter about the use of an ID type
- Poll watchers may never question a voter about Voter ID
- Call the Election Protection hotline if you encounter issues: 1.866.687.8683

My voter registration Status says "Suspense" → You can still vote.

"Suspense" likely means that your county voter registrar needs to confirm your voting address. Contact your County Voter Registrar before the voter registration deadline.

Voting using a Limited Ballot

If you have moved to a new county & haven't registered in the new county by the registration deadline, you might be eligible to vote a Limited Ballot. Contact the County Voter Registrar or Elections Office in your new county.
